

The Class of 2013 - Where are they now?

We have caught up with the Class of 2013, which were our very first graduating Year 12 students. It has been wonderful following their journey over the past 5 years (since they have left school) and the variety of achievements and adventures has certainly made for some impressive reading!

THE CLASS OF 2013

Gerry Archer is working at McDonald's in Port Lincoln and volunteering at the Salvation Army Port Lincoln.

Chantelle Boxer, where hasn't this girl travelled in the past 5 years! She is currently in Vietnam and travelling with another Navigator College graduate.

Aaron Dale is currently living in Adelaide, working in a small Brewhouse and has started competing in Cocktail competitions. He has also been saving up to go travelling overseas before continuing a Bachelor of Physics at Adelaide University.

Brodie Dufek graduated this year with a Bachelor of Arts at Flinders University and will return to University in a few years to study a Post-Graduate Bachelor in Primary School Education. For now though, he is currently doing some casual shift work & saving money to do some overseas travelling.

Hayden Ellis is working full-time and is midway through a Degree in Animal Behavioural Science - Zoology/Herpetology.

Harry Gardner is a Trainee Master on the Sea Link ferry between Kangaroo Island and Cape Jervis, with the view to becoming a Master in a couple of years.

Brad Gooder is currently living in Adelaide. Floor Manager/2IC at Harvey Norman Woodville – the third biggest store in SA/NT.

Karhlie Green is living in Adelaide working as an Employment Consultant.

Bradley Jericho is currently working at Ramsey Bros. as a Guidance Technician and sales assistant. He has been travelling between Wudinna and Murray Bridge through work and seeing the countryside.

Emma Webb just graduated with Bachelor of Education (Primary Middle) and has a one-year part-time contract at Unity College Murraylands teaching Year 3 Health, Christian Studies, Music and Japanese. She is also doing lots of relief work during the week and working a retail job on the weekends.

Holly Leyson is living in Port Lincoln and almost at the 4-year mark of working at Investigator Clinic as a Medical Receptionist.

Joshua Santostefano is a fully qualified Upholsterer at Eyre Upholsterers. He is also a credentialed Youth Pastor at One Heart Church.

Luke Shepperd is a permanent full-time registered Nurse at Noarlunga Health Services, working in Australia's only Acute Care Ward for managing Dementia and Behaviours of Concern. In addition he is studying his Honours Degree at Flinders University with long term plans of a PhD.

Justin Shepperd is living in Streaky Bay and is the Owner/Operator of EP Marine, which is the second biggest Suzuki dealership in South Australia. Business is booming with more and more staff being employed.

Matthew Siviour completed his bachelors of Education and is on a full year contract at Wirreanda Secondary School, teaching Year 8, 9 and 10 Mathematics and Science.

Katelyn Smart is working a 2 week on, 1 week off roster at Prominent Hill mine site driving the underground trucks.

Tiarna Stoetzer works full time at Lincoln Vets whilst studying 2nd year of Veterinary Nursing.

Lori Swincer is applying for a Business Degree in Denmark, after living in Canada for a year. She is now working in Coffin Bay and getting all the necessary licenses in order to eventually take over the family Oyster Lease.

Dylan Swincer is studying a Bachelor of International Tourism and Events at Flinders University (final year), along with travelling between Adelaide and Port Lincoln - helping with the family Oyster Farm. He is hoping to travel next year.

Bec Zacher has moved to Western Australia after graduating from a 4 year Medical Radiation Science degree at UniSA. She is now a Radiation Therapist at Sir Charles Gardiner Hospital in Perth.

This Class of 2013 will again be a part of another 'first' for Navigator College with the first Navigator College Old Scholars 5 Year Reunion planned for later this year. The connections that they have kept will make for a fantastic gathering! We look forward to seeing them all here, along with the staff and other supporters who had such an impact on them here at Navigator College.
